B. W. C. 19 Dec. 3 e.

The New York Delta of Phi Beta Kappa was organized in the President's Room, Columbia College, on Thursday, April 22d, 1869, at a meeting at which there were present, Dr. Barnard, Professors Charles Short, Charles F. Chandler, Wendell Lamouroux, and Alexis A. Julien, of Columbia College.

Dr. Barnard, being called to the chair, stated that the object of the meeting was to receive a charter from the Alpha of New York of Phi Beta Kappa, and to organize under such charter the Delta Chapter of New York. The charter was then read and, on motion, adopted. The chairman read the constitution, which was also unanimously adopted. The first officers of the chapter were as follows:

President,	Dr. F. A. P. Barnard
Vice-President,	Professor Charles Short
Corresponding Secretary,	Professor A. A. Julien
Recording Secretary,	Professor Wendell Lamouroux
Treasurer,	Professor C. F. Chandler

At a special meeting of the Chapter, held May 24, 1901, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, that the New York Delta of Phi Beta Kappa, for the purpose of establishing a

Barnard College Section of the Chapter, shall elect to membership in the Chapter from each class that has been graduated from Barnard College a number not to exceed one-fifth of that of the class at the time of its graduation, but no person shall be elected who does not fulfil the qualifications as to scholarship prescribed in Article III. of the present Constitution: and be it further

Resolved, that the persons so elected shall be initiated by a committee consisting of the officers of the Chapter and five other members of the Chapter to be appointed by the President.

CONSTITUTION

NEW YORK DELTA OF PHI BETA KAPPA

ARTICLE I

NAME

This society is one of the co-ordinate branches of the body known as the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa, and shall be called the Delta Chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society in the State of New York.

ARTICLE II

OBJECT

The object of the Phi Beta Kappa Society is the promotion of scholarship and friendship among students and graduates of American colleges.

ARTICLE III

ORGANIZATION

1. The Chapter shall consist of two sections, the Columbia College Section and the Barnard College Section.

2. The Columbia College Section shall consist of all persons elected to membership prior to 1901, and of such students and alumni of Columbia College as the Section may elect in accordance with the provisions of Article IV. of this Constitution.

3. The Barnard College Section shall consist of the alumnæ of Barnard College elected and initiated in accordance with the provisions of the resolution of the Chapter, adopted May 24, 1901, regarding the formation of such Barnard College Section, and of such students and alumnæ of Barnard College as the Section may elect in accordance with the provisions of Article IV. of this Constitution.

ARTICLE IV

MEMBERSHIP

1. Active membership in this Chapter shall be limited to—first, the members of the Junior and Senior classes of Columbia College and Barnard College, subject to the restrictions mentioned in paragraphs 2, 3, and 4 of this article, and, secondly, to those graduates of Columbia College and Barnard College who may have proved themselves worthy of such honor.

2. Those members of the Junior class alone shall be eligible who, after the final examination of the Junior year, shall be found to have received a standing equivalent to the grade of 2, in accordance with the procedure outlined in section 4, but the number elected by either Section shall not exceed one-tenth of the entire class, provided that, if the number of the class be not divisible by ten, a fractional remainder of five shall make an additional member eligible.

3. Those members of the Senior class alone shall be eligible who shall have obtained a standing equivalent to 2, in accordance with the procedure outlined in section 4, but the number elected by either Section (inclusive of those elected in the Junior year) shall not exceed one-fifth of the entire class, provided that, if the number of the class be not divisible by five, a fractional remainder of three shall make an additional member eligible, and, secondly, those who have been nominated for reasons of weight by the Standing Committee.

4. The eligible list from which candidates for election to this Chapter shall be selected is to be prepared in accordance with the following formula: The records of the students as they are embodied in the books of the Registrar of the University shall furnish the material to be used in determining the relative standing of candidates for election. For the purpose of determining the relative standing of candidates, let grade A = 1, grade B = 2, grade C = 3, grade D = 4, grade F = 7. These numbers will be designated as group numbers. Multiply the group number for each term in each subject of study which the candidate has pursued by the number of hours a week for which that subject is scheduled in the College Announcement. Divide the sum of the products obtained by the total number of hours a week for which the candidate was registered in each term. The eligible list will be made up of those students whose relative standing, in accordance with the preceding formula, lies between the limits of 1 and 2.

5. Any person distinguished in letters, science, or education, may be elected an Honorary Member of this Chapter, by vote of both Sections; and such Honorary Member shall be entitled to all the privileges of active members, but shall not be required to pay any fees.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

1. The officers of this Chapter shall be a President, Vice-President, and a Secretary-Treasurer.

2. The President of the Columbia College Section shall be ex-officio President of the Chapter.

3. The President of the Barnard College Section shall be ex-officio Vice-President of the Chapter.

4. The Secretary of the Columbia College Section shall be ex-officio Secretary-Treasurer of the Chapter.

5. During their term of office the officers shall form a Standing Committee

6. The Secretary-Treasurer shall receive all moneys and pay only such bills as have been approved by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE VI

MEETINGS

1. The Sections shall meet and act separately for all purposes except the amendment of this Constitution, as provided in Article IX., and the election of delegates to the Supreme Council.

2. Joint meetings of the Sections for the purposes specified in paragraph 1 of this Article may be called at any time by the Standing Committee, and must be called by the Committee at the request of either Section.

3. Except as provided in Article IX., a quorum shall consist of five members of each Section.

ARTICLE VII

ELECTION OF MEMBERS

1. Each Section shall hold its election of members at such times and places as it may prescribe in its Constitution and By-Laws.

2. The Secretaries of the Sections shall furnish to the Secretary of the Chapter lists of all persons elected and initiated into the Sections.

ARTICLE VIII

DUTIES OF MEMBERS

1. Each person shall, upon initiation, pay to the Treasurer of his Section the sum of $5.00. No person shall be considered an active member until this sum is paid.

2. Each member shall, immediately after admission, procure a badge of the Society, of the traditional form.

3. Within ten days after initiation the Treasurer of each Section shall pay to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Chapter the sum of $3.00 for each person initiated into that Section.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENTS

1. Amendments to this Constitution shall be made only at a joint meeting of the Sections called for that purpose by the Standing Committee.

2. No amendment shall be considered or adopted at such meeting unless it has previously been acted upon favorably by one or both of the Sections.

3. No amendment to this Constitution shall be declared adopted unless it shall have received the votes of two-thirds of the members present and voting at a meeting at which not less than ten members of each Section are present.

ARTICLE X

INITIATION OF MEMBERS

The form of initiation shall be as follows: The member or members elect shall be conducted into the presence of the Section by a member appointed for that purpose. Upon their entrance, the members shall rise and remain standing, while the conductor addresses the Section as follows: "Mr. President and Members of Phi Beta Kappa, I introduce to you these members-elect. Having been informed of their election, they have requested me to express their desire to be admitted to the honors and privileges of the Society."

The members of the Section shall then resume their seats and the President, remaining standing, shall address the members-elect as follows:

"MEMBERS-ELECT:

"In recognition of the honorable record which you have made during your undergraduate life, you have been elected members of Phi Beta Kappa, a fraternity which, for more than a century, has been the exponent of devotion to literature and philosophy. The distinction thus conferred upon you is one which the most eminent statesmen, divines, jurists, educators, scientists and men of letters have been proud to share. Almost contemporary in its origin with the foundation of our national government, the fraternity is closely identified with the history of this country by the active participation of many of its earlier members in the framing of the Constitution, and by the prominent part which its members of later years have taken in important affairs of both Church and State. Founded in 1776 at that venerable seat of learning, the College of William and Mary, the range and influence of the fraternity have gradually extended until now it embraces forty chapters in as many different colleges and universities, and a membership of nearly twenty thousand. True to its original purpose, the fraternity has ever cherished the sentiment expressed in its motto and sought to foster that love of wisdom and sound knowledge which should be our guide in life. The emblem which has come down to us from our forefathers fitly symbolizes that purpose. The initials "Φ. B. K." stand for the motto "Φιλοσοφία Βίου Κυβερνήτης" and the hand pointing to the stars indicates the noble aspirations of the fraternity. Upon the reverse the letters "S. P." are the initials of the words "Societas Philosophiæ," and the date, "December 5, 1776," is that upon which the Society was organized.

"In wearing this badge we should be mindful of the noble sentiment which it represents, of the distinction which has been attached to it by the many generations of eminent men who have worn it, and of our individual obligation to the great brotherhood of students and scholars who are thus united by a common bond. As the possessors of many of the treasures of the past, it behooves us to make our contribution to the present and to the future. We owe a duty to our fellows, our city, our State and our country, to encourage the love of letters and of sound scholarship, and above all to keep alive the pure flame of truth.

"Recognizing the talent and worth which you have evinced, we welcome you to membership, well assured that it will be your ambition to maintain and perpetuate the traditions and principles of this ancient and honorable fraternity."

The President shall then welcome each of the members-elect in succession, using the grip of the Society, and shall request them to sign the Constitution.

CONSTITUTION

OF THE

COLUMBIA AND BARNARD SECTIONS

ARTICLE I

OFFICERS

1. The officers of this Section shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer.

2. The officers shall be elected annually at the Anniversary Meeting, and shall, during their term of office, form an Executive Committee.

3. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to make all necessary arrangements for meetings and to prepare each year the list of members of the Junior and Senior classes who are eligible to membership in the Section.

4. The Treasurer shall receive all moneys and pay only such bills as have been approved by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE II

MEETINGS

1. The Anniversary Meeting of the Section shall be held on the Tuesday immediately preceding Commencement.

2. Special meetings may be called at any time by the Executive Committee, or at the request in writing of three members.

3. Six members shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE III

ELECTION AND INITIATION OF MEMBERS

1. The election of members may take place at any meeting of the Section, but a special meeting for the purpose shall be held within ten days prior to the Anniversary Meeting.

2. The election of members shall be by ballot. Unless otherwise ordered by the unanimous vote of the members present, the names of the Juniors contained in the eligible list submitted by the Executive Committee shall first be voted upon, separately and in alphabetical order; and, secondly, the names of the Seniors contained in the list shall be voted upon in like manner.

3. No candidate shall be elected unless he shall receive three-fourths of all the votes cast.

4. The initiation of members shall be held at the Anniversary Meeting.

NOTE.

Article III., section 2 of the Constitution of the Columbia Section has been changed (since going to press) to read as follows:

The election of members shall be by ballot, unless otherwise ordered by unanimous consent of the members present. The names of the Juniors contained in the eligible list submitted by the Executive Committee shall first be voted upon separately, and in the order of numerical rank, determined by the method outlined in Article IV., section 4 of the Constitution of the Chapter; and, secondly, the names of the Seniors contained in the list shall be voted upon in like manner.

ARTICLE IV

ORDER OF BUSINESS

1. The order of business shall be as follows:
   (1) Call to Order.
   (2) Reading of the Minutes.
   (3) Election of Members.
   (4) Election of Officers.
   (5) Reports.
   (6) Unfinished and Miscellaneous Business.
   (7) Initiation of Members.
   (8) Adjournment.

2. The order of business may be suspended at any meeting by a majority vote of the members present.

ARTICLE V

AMENDMENTS.

1. Amendments to this Constitution may be introduced at any meeting of the Section but shall not be acted upon until the next succeeding meeting.

2. An amendment to this Constitution can be adopted only by a two-thirds vote of all the members present and voting at a meeting at which not less than fifteen *members are present.

* The Barnard Section requires ten.
